NARRATIVE:

Roger Somes has an extensive adult criminal history that began at the age of 30. His convictions include sexual penetration with foreign object to victim under 18, false registration on vehicle, DUI, receiving stolen property, failure to register as a sex offender, violation of parole, possession of controlled substances, battery, fighting in public place, hit and run with injury, inflicting corporal injury on spouse, and assault. He has served multiple incarcerations, the longest being a 3 year term for sexual penetration with foreign object to victim under 18. Somes was released from state prison to the supervision of the Los Angeles County Probation Department on November 17, 2014. Under the Governor's Public Safety Realignment Act of 2011, better known as Assembly Bill 109 (AB 109) the responsibility of lower-level offenders was shifted from the State to Los Angeles County. He subsequently failed to report to his probation officer and an arrest warrant was issued in October 2015 after he absconded from post release community supervision (PRCS). Somes qualified to be released to the supervision of probation, under AB 109, because his current commitment offenses for failure to register as a sex offender is defined as non-serious and non-violent under the California penal code. His criminal history, sex offender status and current failure to comply with the terms of release make him a most wanted. If you know his whereabouts please contact...
